John Betts

Director,
BC Forest Safety Council

JOHN BETTS is a member of the Board of Directors of the BC Forest Safety Council, representing the Western Silvicultural Contractors' Association (WSCA).

John sits on the Council's Chair Selection Committee and Training Committee.

WSCA's Executive Director since 1998, John was one of the association's founders in 1979, when it was known as the Pacific Reforestation Workers' Association. He first worked planting trees in 1968 and was a silviculture contractor during the 1980s.

Prior to the WSCA, John was involved in public affairs and worked for three years as a news reporter at the Nelson Daily News.
